

Lorenzo A. Trujillo

Assistant Dean for Students and Professional Programs

Educational Background:

J.D.	University of Colorado School of Law	1993
Ed.D.	University of San Francisco	1979
M.A.	University of Colorado	1974
B.A.	University of Colorado	1972

Bio:

Assistant Dean Trujillo practiced law as a partner in the Denver law firm of Frie, Arndt & Trujillo. LLP, as in-house counsel in Adams County School District 14, and is “Of Counsel” with the law firm of Cage, Williams, P.C. He has practiced law, consulted, taught, lectured, and published concerning matters in immigration law, language equity law, education law, juvenile law, the arts and public policy.

Dean Trujillo was Principal of the Lester Arnold On-Line High School in Adams County Public School District 14 and served as a senior administrator in Jefferson County Public Schools. He was one of the founders of the Colorado Cyberschools Association, Inc. and has provided leadership in on-line education throughout the state through the Association.